

Persons Requiring Assistance

- PRA Level I – An individual with a short-term condition, who may experience some difficulty in exiting the building, but are still capable of exiting the building in the event of an emergency, with the aid of an attendant.
 - PRA Level II – An individual with a major mobility restriction (i.e. Wheelchair-bound). These persons will receive professional support/assistance from the Toronto Fire Service.
-  These persons must have an attendant assigned to them
-